I. Background:
The ISPOR student chapter at UNM was established in 2002. The chapter consists of students in the Pharmacoeconomics, Epidemiology, Pharmaceutical Policy and Outcomes Research Graduate program in the UNM College of Pharmacy. Dr. Dennis W. Raisch is currently the faculty advisor for the chapter.

II. Mission Statement:
To provide a platform for fostering exchange of ideas among students in pharmacoeconomics and health outcomes research by providing an environment to facilitate interaction between students, academia, pharmaceutical industry, government and health related organizations.

III. Chapter Officers:
President: Shikhar Shrestha
Vice-President: Rasha Arabyat
Treasurer/Secretary:
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Dennis W Raisch

IV. Members of the Chapter:
- Anslem Omeh
- Adriana Bautista
- Ambroshia Murrietta
- Akhsay Kharat
- Cheng Chen
- John Rafi
- Khalid Al Moikel
- Melissa Roberts
- Rasha Arabyat
- Renee Donohoe
- Shikhar Shrestha
• Yuebin Zhao

V. Science Activities in 2014:

Abstracts:

Poster Presentations:

• ASSESSING FACTORS ASSOCIATED WITH YOUTH SUBSTANCE ABUSE IN THE US USING A STRUCTURAL EQUATION MODEL

  Zhao Y, Gu NY

  College of Pharmacy, University of New Mexico

  ISPOR 6th Asia-Pacific Conference, Beijing, China.

Podium Presentations:

• ASSESSING FACTORS ASSOCIATED WITH SELF-REPORTED HEALTH STATUS IN THE US USING A STRUCTURAL EQUATION MODEL

  Yuebin Zhao, MS; Akshay Kharat, MS; Ning Yan Gu, PhD

  College of Pharmacy, University of New Mexico

  ISPOR 19th Annual International Meeting, Montreal, Canada

  June 2, 2014

Manuscripts:

