MEETINGS

ISPOR hosts three meetings each year where attendees gather to exchange ideas, to learn about developments in the field, and to network with a global HEOR community.

EDUCATION

ISPOR offers state-of-the-art educational programs—led by world-renowned instructors—throughout the year and across the globe.

Learn. Apply. Advance.

PUBLICATIONS

Members have unrestricted access to ISPOR's MEDLINE-indexed journals, monthly eBulletins, regional newsletters, and other member publications.

KNOWLEDGE PRODUCTS

ISPOR's good practice reports, textbooks, and online tools are designed to improve the understanding and use of HEOR by health care decision makers around the world.

ISPOR GROUPS

Through our global membership and stakeholder groups, ISPOR has access to the ideas, knowledge, skills, and experience that enable us to achieve our mission.

Who We Are

ISPOR members are healthcare researchers, health technology developers and assessors, government regulators, healthcare policy makers, payers, providers, health economists, educators, and new professionals and students all working in the field of health economics and outcomes research. Together we strive to increase the efficiency, effectiveness, and equity of healthcare to improve health around the world.

What We Do

ISPOR is recognized globally as the leading scientific and educational association for health economics and outcomes research (HEOR) and its use in healthcare decisions. HEOR studies evaluate how a drug or medical device is used in real-world settings and help decision makers evaluate the social, economic, and ethical issues of a specific health technology or intervention. HEOR professionals generate and apply the scientific evidence used to inform healthcare decisions that affect our daily lives.

Why Join

ISPOR members are part of an interactive global community and receive benefits and opportunities that are uniquely relevant to the field of HEOR.
