To enable the International Society for Pharmacoeconomics and Outcomes Research ("ISPOR") (owner of the Journal) and Elsevier Inc. (the "Publisher") to publish your Article in Value in Health (the "Journal"), the transfer and ownership of copyright must be established. The Article is deemed to include all material submitted for publication and includes the text, figures, tables, author contact details and all supplementary material accompanying the Article. PLEASE REVIEW TERMS, AND INDICATE ACCEPTANCE OF THE TERMS. Your Article will not be published unless this form has been signed and received by ISPOR.

Assignment of Copyright

I hereby irrevocably assign to the International Society for Pharmacoeconomics and Outcomes Research (ISPOR) the copyright in the manuscript identified above (provided that for government authors not electing to transfer copyright, the foregoing is deemed an assignment of exclusive publication rights along with a non-exclusive interest in the copyright) and any supplemental tables, illustrations or other information submitted therewith that are intended for publication as part of or as a supplement to the manuscript (collectively, the "Article") in all forms and media (whether now known or hereafter developed), throughout the world, in all languages, for the full term of copyright including any renewals and extensions (the "Assignment"), subject to the Retained Rights below. This Assignment includes, without limitation, the right to publish the Article in electronic and online forms and systems and the nonexclusive right to use my name and other identifying information in connection with the publication as well as in advertising and promotion. For purposes of clarity, no rights in patents or trademarks (or intellectual property rights other than the copyright in the Article) are conveyed. The foregoing Assignment shall be automatically effective upon acceptance of the Article for publication by ISPOR provided, however, that if ISPOR does not accept the Article, this Assignment shall be void and of no force or effect.

Retention of Rights for Scholarly Purposes (see Definitions on the attached list, deemed incorporated by this reference).

I understand that, notwithstanding the Assignment, I shall have (without the need to obtain further permission) the right to use certain versions of the Article for certain scholarly purposes, as detailed herein, and that I may also exercise the following rights (collectively, "The Retained Rights"): the right to use the Preprint or Accepted Authors Manuscript for Personal Use, Internal Institutional Use and for Scholarly Posting; and the Published Journal Article for Personal Use and Internal Institutional Use.

Author Representations, Ethics and Disclosure

I affirm the Author Representations and Warranties noted below, and confirm that I have reviewed and complied with the relevant Instructions to Authors, the Ethics in Publishing policy, and Conflicts of Interest disclosure requirements at: http://www.elsevier.com/wps/find/intro.cws_home/publishing and the Journal home page.

Author Representations, Warranties and Indemnity:

- The Article submitted to the Journal for review is original, has been written by the stated authors and has not been published elsewhere.
- The Article is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal and will not be submitted for such review while under review by the Journal.
- The Article contains no unlawful or defamatory material and does not contain any materials that violate any personal or proprietary rights of any other person or entity.
- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in my Article.
- If I am using any personal details or images of patients or research subjects, I have obtained written permission or consent from the patient (or, where applicable, the next of kin). I have reviewed and complied with the requirements located at: <http://www.elsevier.com/patientphotographs>.
- I have obtained all necessary permissions and waivers from employers and institutions with which I am associated.

I will indemnify, defend and hold harmless ISPOR and those claiming under or through ISPOR from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities, obligations, judgments and or costs and expenses (including without limitation attorneys fees and disbursements) sustained, suffered, paid or incurred by any of them in connection with any breach or alleged breach of the above representations which I have freely given.

Funding Agency and Sponsorship Declaration

I have reviewed the funding agency requirements located at: <http://www.elsevier.com/fundingbodyagreements> , such as 'public access policy' and will on request notify the Publisher of sources of funding for this Article to assure compliance. This agreement may be executed by fax or email (i.e. attached as a PDF), and such electronic signature shall be deemed an original.

DEFINITIONS

Accepted Author Manuscript (AAM)

Author's version of the manuscript of an article that has been accepted for publication and which may include any author-incorporated changes suggested through the processes of submission processing, peer review, and editor-author communications. AAMs should not include other publisher value-added contributions such as copy-editing, formatting and (if relevant) pagination, and should include the Appropriate Bibliographic Citation and a link to the final publication (generally through the relevant date of issue ("DOI")).

Appropriate Bibliographic Citation

Authors posting Accepted Author Manuscript online should later add a citation for the Published Journal Article indicating that the Article was subsequently published, and may mention the Journal title provided they add the following text at the beginning of the document:

"NOTICE: this is the author's version of a work that was accepted for publication in <Journal title>. Changes resulting from the publishing process, such as peer review, editing, corrections, structural formatting, and other quality control mechanisms may not be reflected in this document. Changes may have been made to this work since it was submitted for publication. A definitive version was subsequently published in PUBLICATION, [VOL#, ISSUE#, (DATE)] DOI#"

Commercial Use

The use or posting of articles for commercial gain or to substitute for the services provided directly by the Journal including: the posting by companies of their employee-authored works for use by customers of such companies (e.g. pharmaceutical companies and physician-prescribers); and commercial exploitation such as directly associating advertising with such posting or the charging of fees for document delivery or access.

Internal Institutional Use

Use by the author's institution for classroom teaching at the institution (including distribution of copies, paper or electronic, and use in course materials and courseware programs) for scholarly purposes. For authors employed by companies, the use by that company for internal training purposes.

Permitted Scholarly Posting

Voluntary posting of AAMs or Preprints by an author on open Web sites operated by the author or the author's institution for scholarly purposes, as determined by the author, or (in connection with Preprints) on preprint servers, but not for Commercial Use or Systematic Distribution. The author should include the Appropriate Bibliographic Citation when posting AAMs. Deposit in or posting to subject-oriented or centralised repositories (such as PubMed Central), or institutional repositories with mandates for systematic postings, is permitted only under specific agreements between Elsevier and the repository, agency or institution, and only consistent with the Publisher's policies concerning such repositories. To learn more about Elsevier policies and agreements with such agencies or institutions go to:

<http://www.elsevier.com/fundingbodyagreements>.

Personal Use

Use by an author in the author's classroom teaching (including distribution of copies, paper or electronic), distribution of copies to research colleagues for their personal use, use in a subsequent compilation of the author's works, inclusion in a thesis or dissertation, preparation of other derivative works such as extending the Article to book-length form, or otherwise using or re-using portions or excerpts in other works (with full acknowledgment of the original publication of the Article).

Preprint

Author's own write-up of research results and analysis that has not been refereed, nor had any other value added to it by a publisher (such as formatting, copy editing, and the like).

Published Journal Article (PJA)

The definitive final record of published research that appears or will appear in the Journal and embodies all value-adding publisher activities including copy-editing, formatting and (if relevant) pagination.

Systematic Distribution

Policies or other mechanisms designed to aggregate and openly disseminate manuscripts or articles, or to substitute for Journal-provided services, including:

- the systematic distribution to others via e-mail lists or list-servers (to parties other than known colleagues), whether for a fee or for free;
- the posting of links to sponsored articles by commercial third parties including pharmaceutical companies;
- institutional, funding body or government manuscript posting policies or mandates that aim to aggregate and openly distribute the accepted, peer reviewed manuscripts or published journal articles authored by its researchers or funded researchers; and
- subject repositories that aim to aggregate and openly distribute accepted peer reviewed manuscripts or published journal articles authored by researchers in specific subject areas.
